REIKI MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

HAPPY HARVEST TO EVERYONE!

I hope each of you have begun to work on your life's Harvest this month. These last months of the year are a time for deep reflection as to what it is you wish to attract as well as how you wish to live and how that place deep within your soul space looks to you. What are your goals or your angles for the end of the year manifesting?

Now is a fantastic time to begin the letting go process as we naturally begin the shutting down phase of the year as well as our soul space. Allowing deep reflective thoughts and ideas to rise up and allowing the old to be discarded making way for a new year of resurrection and new life.

I find the more I live naturally with the flow of nature, I too allow for the remnants of the past to be deeply released as though they are the leaves of a tree. Then I begin the shutting down phase for a time of deep reflection and grounding to become whole and full of life to essentially be renewed in the spring by all the new growth that took place.

I love this time of year as we get to gather together from a place of reunification and reflect on the past year to see our growth and our new potential.

We have a few things going on this month:

Space Clearing Workshop

Given by Kim Lounsberry.

Sunday October 14th at 10:30 am.

Kim is one of our newest Reiki Masters with phenomenal ancient gifts. She is having her first ever workshop at our Reiki Studio. Anyone who is interested in learning how to clear your space as well as support Kim in her new endeavors, please show up or send love and light on this particular day. We look forward to seeing you all in person or energetically.

Manifesting your Perfect Mate
October 20 at 10:00 a.m.

We will be Creating, Manifesting and Exploring from a Space of Love, Beauty and Creativity.

Within this fun-loving manifestation space, we will begin cultivating your wishes, your desires, and your needs for what you want in a mate and allowing for the universe to begin working in your favor. We will be working deeply within a fun-loving, allowing, and non-judgment, non-drastic choice space.

Now a Mate doesn't have to be a love interest, it could be a new group of friends, a business partner, a Co-living partner, a companion, an assistant. Whomever it is, you are seeking, we can put together a list of attributes you require and allow you to begin manifesting your perfect mate or partner.

Designing Opulence and Magnificence
October 27th

I have been guided to give this workshop again as a course of clearing your opulence and or wealth timelines. Going back to that place in your either your current life or your past lives where you have a wrinkle in your timeline that has blocked your energy of Opulence and Magnificence. Basically, I will be stepping back into your timeline along with your help to find where your blockages are and begin finding out what your real true beliefs are about Opulence.

Our last workshop was intense and very successful for those wanting to break the old ideas and behaviors about wealth and opulence.
